A family butcher, trusted by professional kitchens.

Hugh Maguire Butchers & Smokehouse was founded in 1991 on Trimgate Street, Navan, a family business built on Irish beef, traditional curing and the refusal to shortcut the process. A second shop followed in Ashbourne in 2004.

Today, the same standard runs from our smokehouse and production facility at Mullaghboy, Navan, through to the hotels, restaurants and fine dining kitchens we now supply, the same care whether the order is for a breakfast buffet or a tasting menu.
