A family butcher, trusted by professional kitchens.

Hugh Maguire Butchers & Smokehouse was founded in 1991 on Trimgate Street, Navan, a family business built on Irish beef, traditional curing and the refusal to shortcut the process. A second shop followed in Ashbourne in 2004.

Today, the same standard runs from our smokehouse and production facility at Mullaghboy, Navan, through to the hotels, restaurants and fine dining kitchens we now supply, the same care whether the order is for a breakfast buffet or a tasting menu.

Smoked Black Pudding

Judged Supreme Champion at the Great Taste Awards, the finest of 12,500 entries across the UK and Ireland. Smoked in our own smokehouse in Navan to a family recipe, it has become a chef's favourite for starters, mains and even dessert, the signature ingredient kitchens build a dish around, not just a breakfast component.

A CHEF'S RECIPE

Smoked Black Pudding Shakshuka

A Middle Eastern classic with an Irish twist. Spiced tomatoes, peppers and gently baked free-range eggs, elevated with slices of our Smoked Black Pudding. Served straight from the pan with crusty sourdough.

INGREDIENTS

200g Hugh Maguire Butchers & Smokehouse
Smoked Black Pudding, sliced into rounds

4 large free-range Irish eggs

1 tbsp rapeseed oil

1 onion, finely chopped

1 red pepper, sliced

2 cloves garlic, minced

1 fresh red chilli, finely chopped (optional)

1 tin chopped tomatoes (400g)

1 tsp ground cumin

1 tsp smoked paprika

½ tsp ground coriander

Sea salt and cracked black pepper

Fresh parsley or coriander, to garnish

Sourdough bread, toasted, to serve

METHOD

1. Heat the oil in a large pan. Add onion and pepper, cook until softened.
2. Stir in garlic, chilli, cumin, paprika and coriander, cook 1 to 2 minutes until fragrant.
3. Add chopped tomatoes, season, simmer 10 to 15 minutes until thickened.
4. Cook the Smoked Black Pudding slices separately, 3 to 4 minutes, turning once, until crisp on the edges (or air fry at 180°C for 8 to 10 minutes).
5. Make four wells in the sauce, crack in the eggs, cover and cook gently until whites are set but yolks stay runny, 6 to 8 minutes.
6. Nestle in the pudding slices, garnish with parsley or coriander.
7. Serve straight from the pan with toasted sourdough.
